

The London Criminal Courts Solicitors' Association (LCCSA)

Application for Membership

The London Criminal Courts Solicitors' Association was founded in 1948 and has a proud history of representing and furthering the interests of lawyers who practice in the criminal courts. Members are prosecutors, defence litigators (solicitors and non-admitted lawyers) and solicitor advocates. Honorary members include Circuit Judges and District Judges. All share the Association's primary objectives: to encourage and maintain the highest standards of advocacy and practice; to participate in discussions on developments in the criminal process; to represent and further the interests of criminal lawyers on any matters which may affect those practising in the criminal courts; and to improve, develop and maintain the education and knowledge of those actively concerned with the criminal courts.

By joining the LCCSA, you will benefit from: increased networking opportunities; an increased profile by being listed on the Association's website; eligibility for discounted training and CPD points; the bi-monthly newsletter "The London Advocate"; a weekly email news round-up; email alerts marking sure you keep abreast of important breaking news; the opportunity to help influence and shape government policy through the lobbying and representative activities of the LCCSA.
