

LONDON CRIMINAL COURTS SOLICITORS' ASSOCIATION

NOTICE OF ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING and DINNER

The Annual General Meeting

Kettner's

29 Romilly Street, Soho, London W1D 5HP

Kettner's has lived, surviving four kings and a queen, the blitz, several booms and more than a few busts. It is an integral part of the vibrant and debauched Soho scene we know and love today. Gorgeously glamorous, the Grade II listed building retains much of the original architecture, creating an intimate, homely feel.

6.45pm Monday 10th November 2014

Guest after dinner speaker

HHJ William Kennedy

HHJ William Kennedy was admitted as a solicitor in 1972. He spent his entire practising career with Whiskers Solicitors, who had offices in Epping, Harlow, old Harlow and Ilford – he ran the criminal litigation department. He was appointed as an acting stipendiary magistrate in September 1990, with a full time appointment sitting at Greenwich and Woolwich from 1991 to 1996, and then to Thames Magistrates Court from 1996 to 2001. He was appointed as a Circuit Judge in 2001 and now sits at Snaresbrook Crown Court.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS

There are vacancies on the committee. Nominations for elections as officers of the Association and for membership of the committee must be received by the Hon. Secretary, no later than 30th October 2014. Nominations should be sent to Melanie Stooks
