

LCCSA SUMMER PARTY, THE ROTUNDA KINGS CROSS, 7 JULY 2017

Over 150 guests attended what may well go down as one of the most successful LCCSA Summer parties in recent memory – or at the very least, one of the most well lubricated with the free bar carrying on until last orders!

A number of well-received speeches kicked off the evening with LCCSA President Greg Powell paying tribute to the late Dan O’Callaghan’s impish wit before focusing on the endless march of inflation eroding our fees year upon year. We then heard from our kind sponsors, Ian Henderson QC of Farringdon Chambers and LEAP Legal Software before tucking into a delicious barbecue on the banks of the Regent’s Canal.

Rumour has it the party carried well on into the small hours along the Caledonian Road but the author certainly wouldn’t know anything about that!

Congratulations to Sara Boxer, Sinead Zaman and all the others involved in the organisation of what proved to be a roaring success!

Various members enjoying the Summer Sunshine and a well-deserved glass of wine!
